2026 CHAPTER 19

An Act to make provision about the experience of victims within the criminal justice system; about the functions of the Commissioner for Victims and Witnesses; and about procedure and the administration of criminal justice.
[29th April 2026]

BE IT ENACTED by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Attendance at sentencing hearings

1 Power to compel attendance at sentencing hearing

In Part 3 of the Sentencing Code (procedure), after Chapter 2 insert—

“CHAPTER 2A

ATTENDANCE AT SENTENCING HEARINGS

41A Power to order offender to attend

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) an offender has been convicted of an offence,
 - (b) the offender is to be detained in custody while awaiting sentencing by the Crown Court, and
 - (c) the offender has refused, or there are reasonable grounds to suspect that the offender will refuse, to attend court for the sentencing hearing.
- (2) The Crown Court may order the offender to attend court for the sentencing hearing.
- (3) An order under subsection (2) may be made by the court of its own motion or on the application of the prosecutor.

- (4) Before making an order under subsection (2) in relation to an offender aged under 18, the court must consult the relevant youth offending team.
- (5) Where the court makes an order under subsection (2) in relation to an offender who is aged 18 or over, a relevant officer may, in exercising any function for the purpose of delivering the offender to the courtroom, use reasonable force, if necessary and proportionate.
- (6) An offender who fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with an order under subsection (2) commits a criminal contempt of court (see also section 41B).
- (7) In this section –
 - “relevant officer” means –
 - (a) a prison officer;
 - (b) an officer of a young offender institution;
 - (c) a prisoner custody officer (within the meaning of section 89 of the Criminal Justice Act 1991);
 - “the relevant youth offending team” means the youth offending team established under section 39 of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 that is providing support to the offender while awaiting sentence;
 - “sentencing hearing” means a hearing following conviction that is held for the purpose of sentencing the offender.
- (8) Nothing in this section limits –
 - (a) any other power of a court to order an offender to attend court for a sentencing hearing;
 - (b) any part of the law of contempt;
 - (c) any other power of a relevant officer to use force.

41B Attendance orders: prison sanctions for contempt

- (1) This section applies where –
 - (a) the Crown Court makes an order under section 41A requiring an offender to attend a sentencing hearing in respect of an offence,
 - (b) the offender –
 - (i) commits a contempt of court by failing to comply with the order as mentioned in section 41A(6), or
 - (ii) commits a contempt of court by interrupting the hearing or otherwise misbehaving and is removed from the hearing because of their conduct,
 - (c) the offender is 18 or over at the time at which the contempt is committed, and
 - (d) the offender is sentenced to imprisonment or detention for the offence or committed for the contempt.

- (2) In dealing with the contempt the court may make a prison sanctions order in relation to the offender (instead of or in addition to exercising any other power).
- (3) But a prison sanctions order may not be made in relation to an offender aged 18, 19 or 20 unless the place where the offender is to be taken for detention immediately after the order is made is—
 - (a) a prison, or
 - (b) a young offender institution that is provided exclusively as a place for the detention of persons aged 18 to 20.
- (4) In this section “prison sanctions order” means an order—
 - (a) imposing one or more sanctions of a description specified for the purpose of this section by regulations made by the Secretary of State, and
 - (b) in relation to any sanction for which the regulations provide for there to be a maximum period, specifying the period for which it is imposed, which must not exceed the maximum.
- (5) The only sanctions that may be specified in the regulations are sanctions that correspond to the punishments that may be imposed by a governor under prison rules for an offence against discipline.
- (6) The regulations must specify a maximum period for which the sanction may be imposed if the corresponding punishment under prison rules has a maximum period for which it may be imposed.
- (7) The maximum period specified in the regulations for a sanction must not exceed the maximum period specified for the corresponding punishment under prison rules.
- (8) The regulations may make further provision as to the effect of a sanction being imposed by a prison sanctions order.
- (9) Regulations made by virtue of subsection (8) may, in particular—
 - (a) create exceptions;
 - (b) confer a discretion on the governor of the prison or young offender institution in which the person is detained.
- (10) Regulations under this section are subject to the affirmative resolution procedure.
- (11) In this section—

“governor”, in relation to a prison or youth offender institution, includes a director of the prison or institution;

“prison” has the same meaning as in the Prison Act 1952;

“prison rules” means rules made in respect of prisons under section 47 of the Prison Act 1952.”

2 Power to compel attendance at sentencing hearing: armed forces

- (1) The Armed Forces Act 2006 is amended as follows.

- (2) After section 259 insert –

“Attendance at sentencing hearings

259A Power to order attendance

- (1) This section applies where –
- (a) an offender has been convicted of a service offence,
 - (b) the offender is to be detained in custody while awaiting sentencing by the Court Martial or the Service Civilian Court, and
 - (c) the offender has refused, or there are reasonable grounds to suspect the offender will refuse, to attend court for the sentencing hearing.
- (2) The court may order the offender to attend court for the sentencing hearing.
- (3) An order under subsection (2) may be made by the court of its own motion or on the application of the Director of Service Prosecutions.
- (4) Before making an order under subsection (2) in relation to an offender aged under 18, the court must consult the relevant youth offending team.
- (5) In deciding whether to make an order under subsection (2) in relation to an offender aged under 18, the court must have regard to the welfare of the offender.
- (6) Where the court makes an order under subsection (2) in relation to an offender who is aged 18 or over, a person subject to service law who is authorised for the purposes of this subsection by the Provost Marshal of the Royal Military Police may, in exercising any function for the purpose of delivering the offender to the courtroom, use reasonable force, if necessary and proportionate.
- (7) In this section –
- “the relevant youth offending team” means the youth offending team established under section 39 of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 that is providing support to the offender while awaiting sentence;
 - “sentencing hearing” means a hearing following conviction that is held for the purpose of sentencing the offender.
- (8) Nothing in this section limits –
- (a) any other power of the court to order an offender to attend court for a sentencing hearing;
 - (b) any other power of a person authorised as mentioned in subsection (6) to use reasonable force.”
- (3) In section 309 (offences of misbehaviour in court etc) –
- (a) in subsection (1) –
 - (i) omit the “or” at the end of paragraph (d);

- (ii) at the end of paragraph (e) insert “, or
 - (f) fails without reasonable excuse to comply with an order made by the court under section 259A(2) (order by Court Martial or Service Civilian Court to attend sentencing hearing).”;
- (b) after subsection (3) insert—
 - “(3A) Subsection (3B) applies where—
 - (a) a qualifying service court makes an order under section 259A(2) requiring an offender to attend a sentencing hearing in respect of a service offence,
 - (b) the offender—
 - (i) engages in conduct within subsection (1)(d) at the hearing, or
 - (ii) fails to comply with the order as mentioned in subsection (1)(f),
 - (c) the offender is 18 or over at the time of that conduct or failure, and
 - (d) the offender is sentenced to imprisonment or detention for the service offence.
 - (3B) The court may make a prison sanctions order in relation to the offender (instead of or in addition to exercising any other power under this section).
 - (3C) But a prison sanctions order may not be made in relation to an offender aged 18, 19 or 20 unless the place where the offender is to be taken for detention immediately after the order is made is—
 - (a) a prison, or
 - (b) a young offender institution that is provided exclusively as a place for the detention of persons aged 18 to 20.”;
- (c) omit subsection (5);
- (d) after subsection (6) insert—
 - “(7) In this section—
 - “prison sanctions order” has the meaning given by section 41B(4) of the Sentencing Code;
 - “qualifying service court” means—
 - (a) the Court Martial;
 - (b) the Summary Appeal Court;
 - (c) the Service Civilian Court.”

*Restricting parental responsibility3 Restricting parental responsibility of certain sex offenders

(1) After section 10B of the Children Act 1989 insert –

“10C Duty to make prohibited steps order where serious sexual offence committed

- (1) This section applies where –
 - (a) the Crown Court sentences a person (“the offender”) to a life sentence, or a term of imprisonment or detention of 4 years or more, for a serious sexual offence committed against a child, and
 - (b) the offender has parental responsibility for at least one child.
- (2) The Crown Court must make a prohibited steps order with respect to each child for whom the offender has parental responsibility.
- (3) The order must –
 - (a) specify that no step of any kind which could be taken by a parent in meeting their parental responsibility for a child may be taken by the offender with respect to the child without the consent of the High Court or the family court, and
 - (b) be made to have effect until the order is varied or discharged by the High Court or the family court.
- (4) But the Crown Court must not make a prohibited steps order under this section if –
 - (a) making the order is prohibited by section 29(3) of the Adoption and Children Act 2002,
 - (b) a prohibited steps order is already in force that meets the requirements in subsection (3), or
 - (c) it appears to the Crown Court that it would not be in the interests of justice to do so.
- (5) A prohibited steps order made under this section does not cease to have effect if –
 - (a) the offender is acquitted of the offence on appeal, or
 - (b) the sentence is reduced, on appeal, so that it is no longer a life sentence or a term of imprisonment or detention of 4 years or more,but see section 10D.
- (6) Sections 1, 7 and 11 do not apply where the Crown Court proceeds under this section.
- (7) A prohibited steps order made under this section is to be treated for the purposes of section 31F(6) of the Matrimonial and Family Proceedings Act 1984 (proceedings and decisions) as if it were made by the family court.

- (8) The Crown Court does not have jurisdiction to entertain any proceedings in connection with the enforcement of a prohibited steps order made under this section.
- (9) A reference in this Act to an order under this section includes, so far as the context permits, an order varying or discharging it.
- (10) In this section—
 - “life sentence” means a sentence of imprisonment, detention or custody for life, or during His Majesty’s pleasure;
 - “serious sexual offence” means an offence listed in Schedule ZA1.
- (11) The Secretary of State may by regulations amend the list of offences in Schedule ZA1.

10D Review of orders made under section 10C

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a prohibited steps order is made under section 10C prohibiting the taking of steps with respect to a child, and
 - (b) either—
 - (i) the offender is acquitted of the offence on appeal, or
 - (ii) the sentence is reduced, on appeal, so that it is no longer a life sentence or a term of imprisonment or detention of 4 years or more.
- (2) The local authority that is the relevant local authority at the time the verdict of acquittal is entered or the sentence is reduced (if any) must make an application to the court (see section 92(7)) to review the order.
- (3) An application under this section must be made as soon as is reasonably practicable and in any event before the end of the period of 30 days beginning with the day after the day on which the verdict of acquittal was entered or the sentence was reduced.
- (4) The Secretary of State may by regulations amend the period specified in subsection (3).
- (5) In this section—
 - “life sentence” has the meaning given by section 10C(10);
 - “relevant local authority” means—
 - (a) where the child with respect to whom the order was made is ordinarily resident within the area of a local authority in England or Wales, that local authority;
 - (b) where the child with respect to whom the order was made does not fall within paragraph (a) but is present within the area of a local authority in England or Wales, that local authority.”
- (2) Schedule 1 to this Act inserts a Schedule into the Children Act 1989 setting out the serious sexual offences for the purposes of the new section 10C of that Act inserted by subsection (1).

4 Restricting parental responsibility for child conceived as a result of rape

After section 10D of the Children Act 1989 (review of orders made under section 10C) (inserted by section 3) insert—

“10E Duty to make prohibited steps order following rape

- (1) This section applies where the Crown Court—
 - (a) sentences a person (“the offender”) for an offence under section 1 of the Sexual Offences Act 2003 (rape), and
 - (b) is satisfied that a child (“the child”) for whom the offender has parental responsibility was conceived as a result of the rape.
- (2) The Crown Court must make a prohibited steps order when sentencing the offender.
- (3) The order must—
 - (a) specify that no step of any kind which could be taken by a parent in meeting their parental responsibility for a child may be taken by the offender with respect to the child without the consent of the High Court or the family court, and
 - (b) be made to have effect until the order is varied or discharged by the High Court or the family court.
- (4) But the Crown Court must not make a prohibited steps order under this section if—
 - (a) making the order is prohibited by section 29(3) of the Adoption and Children Act 2002,
 - (b) a prohibited steps order is already in force that meets the requirements in subsection (3), or
 - (c) it appears to the Crown Court that it would not be in the interests of justice to do so.
- (5) A prohibited steps order made under this section does not cease to have effect if the offender is acquitted of the offence on appeal, but see section 10G.
- (6) Sections 1, 7 and 11 do not apply where the Crown Court proceeds under this section.
- (7) A prohibited steps order made under this section is to be treated for the purposes of section 31F(6) of the Matrimonial and Family Proceedings Act 1984 (proceedings and decisions) as if it were made by the family court.
- (8) The Crown Court does not have jurisdiction to entertain any proceedings in connection with the enforcement of a prohibited steps order made under this section.
- (9) A reference in this Act to an order under this section includes, so far as the context permits, an order varying or discharging it.

10F Duty to apply to court where child may have been conceived as a result of rape

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) the Crown Court sentences a person (“the offender”) for an offence under section 1 of the Sexual Offences Act 2003 (rape),
 - (b) the Crown Court is satisfied that there is a child (“the child”) for whom the offender has parental responsibility,
 - (c) the Crown Court considers that the child may have been conceived as a result of the rape, and
 - (d) section 10E does not apply.
- (2) The Crown Court must notify the local authority that is the relevant local authority at the time the offender is sentenced (if any) of the matters set out in subsection (1).
- (3) The notification under subsection (2) must be given before the end of the period of 30 days beginning with the day after the day on which the offender is sentenced.
- (4) Before the end of the period of six months beginning with the day after the day on which the Crown Court notifies the local authority under subsection (2), the local authority must make enquiries into whether—
 - (a) the victim of the rape, or
 - (b) if the victim is deceased, any person with parental responsibility for the child other than the offender,consents to an application being made to the court (see section 92(7)) for the court to determine whether to make a section 8 order.
- (5) If consent is given, the local authority must make that application as soon as is reasonably practicable and in any event before the end of the period of 30 days beginning with the day after the day on which the consent is given.
- (6) Subsections (4) and (5) do not apply if the local authority is satisfied that the court would not have jurisdiction to make a section 8 order (see sections 2 and 3 of the Family Law Act 1986).
- (7) The Secretary of State may by regulations amend the periods specified in subsections (3), (4) and (5).
- (8) In this section, “relevant local authority” means—
 - (a) where the child is ordinarily resident within the area of a local authority in England or Wales, that local authority;
 - (b) where the child does not fall within paragraph (a) but is present within the area of a local authority in England or Wales, that local authority.

10G Review of orders made under section 10E or following an application under section 10F

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) either—
 - (i) a prohibited steps order has been made under section 10E, or
 - (ii) an order under Part 2 has been made following an application under section 10F, and
 - (b) the offender is acquitted of the offence following an appeal.
- (2) The local authority that is the relevant local authority at the time the verdict of acquittal is entered (if any) must make an application to the court (see section 92(7)) to review the order.
- (3) An application under this section must be made as soon as is reasonably practicable and in any event before the end of the period of 30 days beginning with the day after the day on which the verdict of acquittal was entered.
- (4) The Secretary of State may by regulations amend the period specified in subsection (3).
- (5) In this section, “relevant local authority” means—
 - (a) where the child with respect to whom the order was made is ordinarily resident within the area of a local authority in England or Wales, that local authority;
 - (b) where the child with respect to whom the order was made does not fall within paragraph (a) but is present within the area of a local authority in England or Wales, that local authority.”

5 Sections 3 and 4: consequential amendments

- (1) The Children Act 1989 is amended in accordance with subsections (2) to (8).
- (2) In section 8(3), after “10A” insert “, 10C or 10E”.
- (3) In section 9(1), (6A) and (8) (as amended or inserted by section 18 of the Victims and Prisoners Act 2024), after “10A” insert “, 10C or 10E”.
- (4) In section 10A (inserted by section 18 of the Victims and Prisoners Act 2024)—
 - (a) for the heading substitute “Duty to make prohibited steps order where one parent kills another”;
 - (b) after subsection (9) insert—
 - “(10) A reference in this Act to an order under this section includes, so far as the context permits, an order varying or discharging it.”
- (5) In section 10B, in subsection (2), after “made” insert “(if any)”.

- (6) In section 33(3A) (inserted by section 18 of the Victims and Prisoners Act 2024) –
- (a) after “10A” insert “, 10C or 10E”;
 - (b) for “parent”, in both places it occurs, substitute “person”.
- (7) In section 91 –
- (a) in subsection (2), after “10A” (inserted by section 18 of the Victims and Prisoners Act 2024) insert “, 10C or 10E”;
 - (b) after subsection (14) insert –

“(14A) The reference in subsection (14) and section 91A(5)(a)(iii) to the disposal of an application includes an application under the following provisions –

section 10B,
section 10D,
section 10F, or
section 10G.”
- (8) In section 104(3AZA) (inserted by section 18 of the Victims and Prisoners Act 2024), for “section 10B(6)” substitute –
- “section 10B(6),
section 10C(11),
section 10D(4),
section 10F(7), or
section 10G(4).”
- (9) In section 50(2A) of the Criminal Appeal Act 1968 (inserted by section 18 of the Victims and Prisoners Act 2024), after “10A” insert “, 10C or 10E”.
- (10) In section 379 of the Sentencing Code (other behaviour orders etc), after subsection (1) insert –
- “(1A) See sections 10A, 10C and 10E of the Children Act 1989 for circumstances in which the Crown Court may be required to make a prohibited steps order when dealing with an offender.”

Victims’ rights

6 Victims’ rights to make disclosures relating to criminal conduct

For section 17 of the Victims and Prisoners Act 2024 (disclosures by victims that cannot be precluded by agreement) substitute –

“17 Disclosures by victims that cannot be precluded by agreement

- (1) Any provision in an agreement is void in so far as it purports to preclude a victim, or a person who reasonably believes they are a victim, from making –
 - (a) an allegation of, or a disclosure of information relating to, relevant criminal conduct, or

- (b) an allegation, or a disclosure of information, relating to the response of any other party to the agreement to—
 - (i) relevant criminal conduct, or
 - (ii) the making of an allegation or disclosure within paragraph (a).
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to provision in an agreement (an “excepted agreement”) that satisfies such conditions as the Secretary of State may specify by regulations.
- (3) But the Secretary of State may by regulations provide that any provision in an excepted agreement is void in so far as it purports to preclude the victim, or the person who reasonably believes they are a victim, from making an allegation or disclosure within subsection (1)(a) or (b)—
 - (a) to a specified description of person;
 - (b) for a specified purpose;
 - (c) in specified circumstances.
- (4) Nothing in this section affects the operation of any other enactment or rule of law by virtue of which provision in an agreement may be void.
- (5) Subject to subsections (6), (7) and (8), this section binds the Crown.
- (6) This section does not apply to provision in an agreement entered into by His Majesty in his private capacity (within the meaning of the Crown Proceedings Act 1947).
- (7) This section does not apply to provision in an agreement entered into by the Crown for the purposes of—
 - (a) the Security Service;
 - (b) the Secret Intelligence Service;
 - (c) the Government Communications Headquarters.
- (8) This section does not apply to provision in an agreement which—
 - (a) is between the Crown and a member or former member of the special forces, and
 - (b) governs the disclosure by the member or former member of any information relating to the work of the special forces.
- (9) In this section—
 - “relevant criminal conduct” means conduct by virtue of which the person making the allegation or disclosure is, or reasonably believes they are, a victim (see section 1(1) and (2) of this Act);
 - “special forces” means those units of the armed forces of the Crown the maintenance of whose capabilities is the responsibility of the Director of Special Forces or which are for the time being subject to the operational command of that Director;
 - “specified” means specified in the regulations.”

7 Victims' rights to make representations and receive information etc

Schedule 2 makes provision about the rights of victims of certain offences to make representations and receive information about offenders.

Victims' Commissioner

8 Commissioner's power to act in individual cases relevant to public policy

- (1) Section 51 of the Domestic Violence, Crime and Victims Act 2004 (restrictions on exercise of victims' commissioner's functions) is amended as follows.
- (2) The existing text becomes subsection (1).
- (3) In that subsection, in paragraph (a), at the end insert “, except as mentioned in subsection (2)”.
- (4) After that subsection insert –
 - “(2) Where the Commissioner considers that –
 - (a) the case of a particular victim or witness raises issues of public policy of relevance to other victims or witnesses, and
 - (b) the exercise of a function of the Commissioner in relation to that case is likely to promote the interests of other victims or witnesses in relation to those issues of public policy,the Commissioner may exercise that function for that purpose.”
- (5) The amendments made by this section have effect in relation to a person who is a victim or witness regardless of when the conduct in relation to which the person is a victim or witness occurred.
- (6) In subsection (5) “victim” and “witness” have the meaning given by section 52 of the Domestic Violence, Crime and Victims Act 2004.

9 Duty to co-operate with Commissioner: anti-social behaviour

- (1) The Domestic Violence, Crime and Victims Act 2004 is amended as follows.
- (2) After section 51A (duty to co-operate with Commissioner) insert –

“51B Duty to co-operate with Commissioner: anti-social behaviour

- (1) The Commissioner may request a local authority or a relevant provider of social housing to co-operate with the Commissioner in any way that the Commissioner considers necessary for the purposes of the Commissioner's functions, so far as those functions are exercisable in respect of victims and witnesses of anti-social behaviour.
- (2) But such a request may be made to a relevant provider of social housing only in respect of matters that relate to social housing.
- (3) A local authority or a relevant provider of social housing must comply with a request made to it under this section, so far as it is appropriate and reasonably practicable for the authority or the provider to do so.

- (4) In this section—
- “local authority”—
- (a) in relation to England, means—
- (i) a district council;
 - (ii) a county council;
 - (iii) a combined authority established under section 103 of the Local Democracy, Economic Development and Construction Act 2009;
 - (iv) a combined county authority established under section 9 of the Levelling-up and Regeneration Act 2023;
 - (v) a London borough council;
 - (vi) the Common Council of the City of London in its capacity as a local authority;
 - (vii) the Council of the Isles of Scilly;
- (b) in relation to Wales, means a county council or a county borough council;
- “relevant provider of social housing” means a private registered provider of social housing or a body registered as a social landlord under section 3 of the Housing Act 1996;
- “social housing” has the same meaning as in Part 2 of the Housing and Regeneration Act 2008.”

- (3) In section 51A, in the heading, at the end insert “: providers of victims’ code services”.
- (4) In section 52 (meaning of “victims” and “witnesses” etc), in subsection (1), for “51” substitute “51B”.

10 Duty of Commissioner to report on compliance with victims’ code

- (1) The Victims and Prisoners Act 2024 is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 11 (reviewing code compliance: Secretary of State and Attorney General)—
- (a) in subsection (4) omit paragraph (a);
 - (b) after subsection (8) insert—
- “(8A) In preparing a report under subsection (1)(b) in relation to a period, the Secretary of State and the Attorney General must have regard to any report made by the Commissioner for Victims and Witnesses under section 11A(1) that relates to that period.”
- (3) After section 11 insert—

“11A Reviewing code compliance: Commissioner for Victims and Witnesses

- (1) The Commissioner for Victims and Witnesses must make a report to the Secretary of State and the Attorney General about the code compliance of the persons mentioned in section 11(6) for each period in relation to which the Secretary of State and the Attorney General are required to prepare and publish a report under section 11(1)(b).

- (2) Reports under subsection (1) must be published by the Commissioner.
- (3) Section 49A of the Domestic Violence, Crime and Victims Act 2004 (duty to respond to Commissioner's recommendations) applies in relation to a report under subsection (1) containing recommendations to an authority within the Commissioner's remit as it applies in relation to a report under section 49(2)(b) or (4) of that Act.
- (4) Section 53 of that Act (authorities within the Commissioner's remit) applies for the purposes of subsection (3) as it applies for the purposes of Part 3 of that Act.
- (5) In this section "code compliance" has the meaning given by section 11(7)(b)."

Prosecutions

11 Appointment of Crown Prosecutors

- (1) The Prosecution of Offences Act 1985 is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 1 (the Crown Prosecution Service)—
 - (a) in subsection (3) omit "who has a general qualification (within the meaning of section 71 of the Courts and Legal Services Act 1990)";
 - (b) after subsection (7) insert—
 - “(8) Nothing in this section confers on a person designated for the purposes of subsection (3) who does not have a general qualification (within the meaning given by section 71 of the Courts and Legal Services Act 1990)—

PART 2

INFORMATION

Introduction

- 23 New Part 3A of the Domestic Violence, Crime and Victims Act 2004 (created by paragraph 2(1) of this Schedule) is amended as follows.

Victims’ rights to receive information

- 24 After section 44B insert –

“CHAPTER 2

INFORMATION: VICTIMS’ RIGHTS

Imprisonment or detention

44C Victims’ rights to receive information

- (1) This section applies if –
- (a) one of these applies in respect of a person –
 - (i) the person is convicted of an offence listed in Part 1 of Schedule 6A and a sentence of imprisonment or detention for a term of less than the specified sentence length is imposed on the offender in respect of the offence,
 - (ii) the person is convicted of an offence listed in Part 3 of Schedule 6A and a sentence of imprisonment or detention is imposed on the offender in respect of the offence, or
 - (iii) the person is convicted of an offence where the behaviour giving rise to the offence involved domestic abuse within the meaning of the Domestic Abuse Act 2021 (see section 1 of that Act) and a sentence of imprisonment or detention is imposed on the offender in respect of the offence,
 - (b) the provider of probation services receives a request for information to be provided in accordance with this section, and
 - (c) the person who made the request appears to the provider of probation services to be the victim of the offence or to act for the victim of the offence.
- (2) But section 44H applies (instead of this section) if a hospital direction and a limitation direction are given in relation to the offender.
- (3) The provider of probation services must take all reasonable steps –

- (a) so far as the provider considers it appropriate to do so, to provide the person who made the request with—
 - (i) information about the release, or consideration for release, of the offender;
 - (ii) information about the imposition of licence conditions or supervision requirements in connection with the offender's release;
 - (iii) details of any such conditions or requirements which the provider considers relate to the victim or the victim's family;
- (b) to provide the person with such other information as the provider considers appropriate in all the circumstances of the case.

Hospital orders

44D Information where restriction order made

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a person ("the patient") is charged with—
 - (i) an offence that is listed in Part 3 of Schedule 6A, or
 - (ii) an offence where the behaviour giving rise to the charge involved domestic abuse within the meaning of the Domestic Abuse Act 2021 (see section 1 of that Act),
 - (b) one of these applies in respect of the patient—
 - (i) the patient is convicted of the offence;
 - (ii) a verdict is returned that the patient is not guilty of the offence by reason of insanity;
 - (iii) a finding is made under section 4 of the Criminal Procedure (Insanity) Act 1964 that the patient is under a disability, and under section 4A of that Act that the patient did the act or made the omission charged against the patient as the offence,
 - (c) a hospital order is made with a restriction order in respect of the patient by a court dealing with the patient for the offence,
 - (d) the provider of probation services receives a request for information to be provided in accordance with this section, and
 - (e) the person who made the request appears to the provider of probation services to be the victim of the offence or to act for the victim of the offence.
- (2) The provider of probation services must take all reasonable steps to ascertain whether the hospital order and the restriction order made in respect of the patient continue in force.

- (3) If the hospital order and the restriction order continue in force, the provider of probation services must take all reasonable steps –
 - (a) so far as the provider considers it appropriate to do so, to provide the person who made the request with –
 - (i) information about the discharge, or consideration for discharge, of the patient;
 - (ii) information about the imposition of conditions in connection with the patient’s discharge;
 - (iii) details of any such conditions which the provider considers relate to the victim or the victim’s family;
 - (b) if the restriction order in respect of the patient is to cease to have effect, so far as the provider considers it appropriate to do so, to notify that person of the date on which it is to cease to have effect;
 - (c) so far as the provider considers it appropriate to do so, to provide the person with –
 - (i) information about the grant to the patient of leave to be absent from hospital under section 17 of the Mental Health Act 1983, or the consideration of the patient for such leave;
 - (ii) information about the imposition of conditions in connection with the grant to the patient of such leave;
 - (iii) details of any such conditions which the provider considers relate to the victim or the victim’s family;
 - (d) to provide that person with such other information as the provider considers appropriate in all the circumstances of the case.
- (4) The Secretary of State must give the provider of probation services such information as the Secretary of State considers appropriate for the purpose of enabling the provider to carry out its functions under subsection (3).
- (5) But the Secretary of State is not required by subsection (4) to give the provider of probation services information that the tribunal is required to give the provider under subsection (7).
- (6) Subsection (7) applies if –
 - (a) an application is made to the First-tier Tribunal or the Mental Health Review Tribunal for Wales by the patient under section 69, 70 or 75 of the Mental Health Act 1983 (applications concerning restricted patients), or
 - (b) the Secretary of State refers the patient’s case to the First-tier Tribunal or the Mental Health Review Tribunal for Wales under section 71 or 75 of that Act (applications and references concerning restricted patients).
- (7) The tribunal must inform the provider of probation services –

- (a) whether the patient is to be discharged;
- (b) if so, whether the patient is to be discharged absolutely or subject to conditions;
- (c) if the patient is to be discharged subject to conditions, what the conditions are to be;
- (d) if the patient has been discharged subject to conditions, of any variation of the conditions by the tribunal;
- (e) if the restriction order is to cease to have effect by virtue of action to be taken by the tribunal, of the date on which the restriction order is to cease to have effect.

44E Victim impact statements where restriction order made

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) a person (“the patient”) is charged with—
 - (i) an offence that is listed in Part 3 of Schedule 6A, or
 - (ii) an offence where the behaviour giving rise to the charge involved domestic abuse within the meaning of the Domestic Abuse Act 2021 (see section 1 of that Act),
 - (b) one of these applies in respect of the patient—
 - (i) the patient is convicted of the offence;
 - (ii) a verdict is returned that the patient is not guilty of the offence by reason of insanity;
 - (iii) a finding is made under section 4 of the Criminal Procedure (Insanity) Act 1964 that the patient is under a disability, and under section 4A of that Act that the patient did the act or made the omission charged against the patient as the offence,
 - (c) a hospital order is made with a restriction order in respect of the patient by a court dealing with the patient for the offence,
 - (d) either—
 - (i) an application is made to the First-tier Tribunal or the Mental Health Review Tribunal for Wales by the patient under section 69, 70 or 75 of the Mental Health Act 1983 (applications concerning restricted patients), or
 - (ii) the Secretary of State refers the patient’s case to the tribunal under section 71 or 75 of that Act (references concerning restricted patients), and
 - (e) the provider of probation services considers it appropriate to give a person who appears to the provider to be the victim of the offence the opportunity to provide a victim impact statement under this section.

- (2) The provider of probation services—
 - (a) must take all reasonable steps to ascertain whether the person wishes to provide a victim impact statement to the provider, and
 - (b) if the person provides such a statement, must forward it to the tribunal.
- (3) Where a victim impact statement has been forwarded to the tribunal under subsection (2), the tribunal must—
 - (a) allow the person who made the statement to request permission to read the statement to the tribunal at a relevant hearing, and
 - (b) grant such permission unless the tribunal considers that there are good reasons not to.
- (4) The tribunal may have regard to the statement when determining any of the following matters (but must not have regard to it for any other purpose)—
 - (a) whether the patient should be subject to any conditions in the event of the patient’s discharge from hospital while a restriction order is in force in respect of the patient;
 - (b) if so, what conditions;
 - (c) what conditions the patient should be subject to in the event of the patient’s discharge from hospital under a community treatment order.
- (5) In this section—

“relevant hearing” means any hearing held by the tribunal before making a decision which disposes of proceedings on the application or reference mentioned in subsection (1)(d);

“victim impact statement” means a statement about the way in which, and the degree to which, the offence has affected and (as the case may be) continues to affect the victim or any other person.

44F Information where restriction order not made

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a person (“the patient”) is charged with—
 - (i) an offence that is listed in Part 3 of Schedule 6A, or
 - (ii) an offence where the behaviour giving rise to the charge involved domestic abuse within the meaning of the Domestic Abuse Act 2021 (see section 1 of that Act),
 - (b) one of these applies in respect of the patient—
 - (i) the patient is convicted of the offence;

- (ii) a verdict is returned that the patient is not guilty of the offence by reason of insanity;
 - (iii) a finding is made under section 4 of the Criminal Procedure (Insanity) Act 1964 that the patient is under a disability, and under section 4A of that Act that the patient did the act or made the omission charged against the patient as the offence,
 - (c) a hospital order is made without a restriction order in respect of the patient by a court dealing with the patient for the offence,
 - (d) the provider of probation services receives a request for information to be provided in accordance with this section, and
 - (e) the person who made the request appears to the provider of probation services to be the victim of the offence or to act for the victim of the offence.
- (2) The provider of probation services must take all reasonable steps to ascertain—
- (a) whether the hospital order made in respect of the patient continues in force, and
 - (b) if so, whether a community treatment order is in force in respect of the patient.
- (3) If the hospital order made in respect of the patient continues in force—
- (a) the provider of probation services must take all reasonable steps to notify the managers of the relevant hospital of the request and of the name and address of the person who made it, and
 - (b) the provider may notify that person of the name and address of the relevant hospital.
- (4) If notified under subsection (3)(a), the managers of the relevant hospital must take all reasonable steps—
- (a) so far as the managers consider it appropriate to do so, to provide the person who made the request or the provider of probation services with—
 - (i) information about the discharge, or consideration for discharge, of the patient under section 23 or 72 of the Mental Health Act 1983;
 - (ii) information about the making of a community treatment order in respect of the patient;
 - (iii) details of any conditions specified in a community treatment order made in respect of the patient which the managers consider relate to the victim or the victim’s family;

- (b) if a community treatment order is in force in respect of the patient and the conditions specified in the order are to be varied under section 17B(4) of the Mental Health Act 1983, so far as the managers consider it appropriate to do so, to provide that person or the provider with details of any variation which the managers consider relates to the victim or the victim’s family;
 - (c) if a community treatment order in respect of the patient is to cease to be in force, so far as the managers consider it appropriate to do so, to inform that person or the provider of the date on which it is to cease to be in force;
 - (d) if, following the examination of the patient under section 20 of the Mental Health Act 1983, the authority for the patient’s detention is not to be renewed, so far as the managers consider it appropriate to do so, to inform that person or the provider of the date on which the authority is to expire;
 - (e) so far as the managers consider it appropriate to do so, to provide that person or the provider with—
 - (i) information about the grant to the patient of leave to be absent from hospital under section 17 of the Mental Health Act 1983, or the consideration of the patient for such leave;
 - (ii) information about the imposition of conditions in connection with the grant to the patient of such leave;
 - (iii) details of any such conditions which the managers consider relate to the victim or the victim’s family;
 - (f) to provide that person or the provider with such other information as the managers consider appropriate in all the circumstances of the case.
- (5) If the provider of probation services is provided with information under subsection (4), it must, so far as it considers it appropriate to do so, provide the information to the person who made the request.
- (6) The responsible clinician must provide the managers of the relevant hospital with any information which the responsible clinician has and which is requested by the managers for the purpose of carrying out their functions under subsection (4).
- (7) Subsection (8) applies if—
- (a) an application is made to the First-tier Tribunal or the Mental Health Review Tribunal for Wales under section 66 or 69 of the Mental Health Act 1983,
 - (b) the patient’s case is referred to the First-tier Tribunal or the Mental Health Review Tribunal for Wales under section 67 of that Act, or

- (c) the managers of the relevant hospital refer the patient’s case to the First-tier Tribunal or the Mental Health Review Tribunal for Wales under section 68 of that Act.
- (8) The tribunal must inform the managers of the relevant hospital if it directs that the patient is to be discharged.
- (9) In this section “the relevant hospital” is –
 - (a) the hospital in which the patient is detained, or
 - (b) if a community treatment order is in force in respect of the patient, the responsible hospital.

44G Removal of restriction

- (1) This section applies if –
 - (a) the provider of probation services is required to provide information to a person in accordance with section 44D, and
 - (b) the restriction order mentioned in section 44D(1)(c) has ceased to have effect (whether before or after the request for the information was made) while the hospital order continues in force.
- (2) The provider of probation services must take all reasonable steps to notify the managers of the relevant hospital of an address at which the person who made the request for the information may be contacted.
- (3) The provider of probation services may notify the person who made the request of the name and address of the relevant hospital.
- (4) While the hospital order continues in force –
 - (a) the patient in respect of whom the hospital order was made with the restriction order is to be regarded as a patient in respect of whom a hospital order was made without a restriction order; and section 44F applies in relation to the patient accordingly, and
 - (b) the request for information under section 44D is to be treated as a request for information to be provided in accordance with section 44F.
- (5) In this section “the relevant hospital” has the meaning given by section 44F(9).

Hospital directions

44H Information

- (1) This section applies if –
 - (a) one of these applies in respect of a person –

- (i) the person is convicted of an offence that is listed in Part 1 of Schedule 6A and a sentence of imprisonment or detention for a term of less than the specified sentence length is imposed on the person in respect of the offence,
 - (ii) the person is convicted of an offence that is listed in Part 3 of Schedule 6A and a sentence of imprisonment or detention is imposed on the person in respect of the offence, or
 - (iii) the person is convicted of an offence where the behaviour giving rise to the offence involved domestic abuse within the meaning of the Domestic Abuse Act 2021 (see section 1 of that Act) and a sentence of imprisonment or detention is imposed on the person in respect of the offence,
 - (b) a hospital direction and a limitation direction are given in relation to the offender by a court dealing with the offender for the offence,
 - (c) the provider of probation services receives a request for information to be provided in accordance with this section, and
 - (d) the person who made the request appears to the provider of probation services to be the victim of the offence or to act for the victim of the offence.
- (2) The provider of probation services must take all reasonable steps to ascertain whether the hospital direction and the limitation direction given in respect of the offender continue in force.
- (3) If the hospital direction and the limitation direction continue in force, the provider of probation services must take all reasonable steps –
- (a) so far as the provider considers it appropriate to do so, to provide the person who made the request with –
 - (i) information about the discharge, or consideration for discharge, of the offender;
 - (ii) information about the imposition of conditions in connection with the offender’s discharge;
 - (iii) details of any such conditions which the provider considers relate to the victim or the victim’s family;
 - (b) if the limitation direction in respect of the offender is to cease to have effect, so far as the provider considers it appropriate to do so, to notify that person of the date on which it is to cease to have effect;
 - (c) so far as the provider considers it appropriate to do so, to provide that person with –

- (i) information about the release, or consideration for release, of the offender;
 - (ii) information about the imposition of licence conditions or supervision requirements in connection with the offender's release;
 - (iii) details of any such conditions or requirements which the provider considers relate to the victim or the victim's family;
 - (d) so far as the provider considers it appropriate to do so, to provide that person with—
 - (i) information about the grant to the offender of leave to be absent from hospital under section 17 of the Mental Health Act 1983, or the consideration of the offender for such leave;
 - (ii) information about the imposition of conditions in connection with the grant to the offender of such leave;
 - (iii) details of any such conditions which the provider considers relate to the victim or the victim's family;
 - (e) to provide that person with such other information as the provider considers appropriate in all the circumstances of the case.
- (4) The Secretary of State must give the provider of probation services such information as the Secretary of State considers appropriate for the purpose of enabling the provider to carry out its functions under subsection (3).
- (5) But the Secretary of State is not required by subsection (4) to give the provider of probation services information that the tribunal is required to give the provider under subsection (7).
- (6) Subsection (7) applies if—
- (a) an application is made to the First-tier Tribunal or the Mental Health Review Tribunal for Wales by the offender under section 69, 70 or 75 of the Mental Health Act 1983 (applications concerning restricted patients), or
 - (b) the Secretary of State refers the offender's case to the First-tier tribunal or the Mental Health Review Tribunal for Wales under section 71 or 75 of that Act (applications and references concerning restricted patients).
- (7) The tribunal must inform the provider of probation services—
- (a) whether the offender is to be discharged;
 - (b) if so, whether the offender is to be discharged absolutely or subject to conditions;
 - (c) if the offender is to be discharged subject to conditions, what the conditions are to be;

- (d) if the offender has been discharged subject to conditions, of any variation of the conditions by the tribunal;
- (e) if the limitation direction is to cease to have effect by virtue of action to be taken by the tribunal, of the date on which the limitation direction is to cease to have effect.

44I Removal of restriction

- (1) This section applies if –
 - (a) the provider of probation services is required to provide information to a person in accordance with section 44H,
 - (b) the limitation direction mentioned in section 44H(1)(b) has ceased to have effect (whether before or after the request for the information was made), and
 - (c) the offender in respect of whom the request for the information was made is treated for the purposes of the Mental Health Act 1983 as a patient in respect of whom a hospital order has effect.
- (2) The provider of probation services must take all reasonable steps to notify the managers of the relevant hospital of an address at which the person who made the request for the information may be contacted.
- (3) The provider of probation services may notify the person who made the request of the name and address of the relevant hospital.
- (4) The offender is to be regarded as a patient in respect of whom a hospital order was made without a restriction order; and section 44F applies in relation to the offender accordingly.
- (5) The request for information under section 44H is to be treated as a request for information to be provided in accordance with section 44F.
- (6) In this section “the relevant hospital” means the hospital in which the offender is detained.

Transfer directions

44J Information where restriction direction given

- (1) This section applies if –
 - (a) one of these applies in respect of a person –

- (ii) the person is convicted of an offence listed in Part 3 of Schedule 6A and a sentence of imprisonment or detention is imposed on the offender in respect of the offence, or
 - (iii) the person is convicted of an offence where the behaviour giving rise to the offence involved domestic abuse within the meaning of the Domestic Abuse Act 2021 (see section 1 of that Act) and a sentence of imprisonment or detention is imposed on the person in respect of the offence,
 - (b) while the person is serving the sentence, the Secretary of State gives a transfer direction with a restriction direction in respect of the person,
 - (c) the provider of probation services receives a request for information to be provided in accordance with this section, and
 - (d) the person who made the request appears to the provider of probation services to be the victim of the offence or to act for the victim of the offence.
- (2) The provider of probation services must take all reasonable steps to ascertain whether the transfer direction and the restriction direction continue in force.
- (3) If the transfer direction and the restriction direction continue in force, the provider of probation services must take all reasonable steps—
 - (a) so far as the provider considers it appropriate to do so, to provide the person who made the request with—
 - (i) information about the discharge, or consideration for discharge, of the patient;
 - (ii) information about the imposition of conditions in connection with the patient's discharge;
 - (iii) details of any such conditions which the provider considers relate to the victim or the victim's family;
 - (b) if the restriction direction in respect of the patient is to cease to have effect, so far as the provider considers it appropriate to do so, to notify that person of the date on which it is to cease to have effect;
 - (c) so far as the provider considers it appropriate to do so, to provide that person with—
 - (i) information about the release, or consideration for release, of the patient;
 - (ii) information about the imposition of licence conditions or supervision requirements in connection with the patient's release;

- (iii) details of any such conditions or requirements which the provider considers relate to the victim or the victim’s family;
 - (d) so far as the provider of probation services considers it appropriate to do so, to provide that person with—
 - (i) information about the grant to the patient of leave to be absent from hospital under section 17 of the Mental Health Act 1983, or the consideration of the patient for such leave;
 - (ii) information about the imposition of conditions in connection with the grant to the patient of such leave;
 - (iii) details of any such conditions which the provider considers relate to the victim or the victim’s family;
 - (e) to provide that person with such other information as the provider considers appropriate in all the circumstances of the case.
- (4) The Secretary of State must give the provider of probation services such information as the Secretary of State considers appropriate for the purpose of enabling the provider to carry out its functions under subsection (3).
- (5) But the Secretary of State is not required by subsection (4) to give the provider of probation services information that the tribunal is required to give the provider under subsection (7).
- (6) Subsection (7) applies if—
 - (a) an application is made to the First-tier Tribunal or the Mental Health Review Tribunal for Wales by the patient under section 69, 70 or 75 of the Mental Health Act 1983 (applications concerning restricted patients), or
 - (b) the Secretary of State refers the patient’s case to the First-tier Tribunal or the Mental Health Review Tribunal for Wales under section 71 or 75 of that Act (applications and references concerning restricted patients).
- (7) The tribunal must inform the provider of probation services—
 - (a) whether the patient is to be discharged;
 - (b) if so, whether the patient is to be discharged absolutely or subject to conditions;
 - (c) if the patient is to be discharged subject to conditions, what the conditions are to be;
 - (d) if the patient has been discharged subject to conditions, of any variation of the conditions by the tribunal;
 - (e) if the restriction order is to cease to have effect by virtue of action to be taken by the tribunal, of the date on which the restriction order is to cease to have effect.

44K Information where restriction direction not given

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) one of these applies in respect of a person—
 - (i) the person is convicted of an offence listed in Part 1 of Schedule 6A and a sentence of imprisonment or detention for a term of less than 12 months is imposed on the offender in respect of the offence,
 - (ii) the person is convicted of an offence listed in Part 3 of Schedule 6A and a sentence of imprisonment or detention is imposed on the offender in respect of the offence, or
 - (iii) the person is convicted of an offence where the behaviour giving rise to the offence involved domestic abuse within the meaning of the Domestic Abuse Act 2021 (see section 1 of that Act) and a sentence of imprisonment or detention is imposed on the person in respect of the offence,
 - (b) while the person is serving the sentence, the Secretary of State gives a transfer direction without a restriction direction in respect of the person,
 - (c) the provider of probation services receives a request for information to be provided in accordance with this section, and
 - (d) the person who made the request appears to the provider of probation services to be the victim of the offence or to act for the victim of the offence.
- (2) The provider of probation services must take all reasonable steps to ascertain—
 - (a) whether the transfer direction given in respect of the patient continues in force, and
 - (b) if so, whether a community treatment order is in force in respect of the patient.
- (3) If the transfer direction given in respect of the patient continues in force—
 - (a) the provider of probation services must take all reasonable steps to notify the managers of the relevant hospital of the request and of the name and address of the person who made it, and
 - (b) the provider of probation services may notify the person of the name and address of the relevant hospital.
- (4) If notified under subsection (3)(a), the managers of the relevant hospital must take all reasonable steps—

- (a) so far as the managers consider it appropriate to do so, to provide the person who made the request or the provider of probation services with—
 - (i) information about the discharge, or consideration for discharge, of the patient under section 23 or 72 of the Mental Health Act 1983;
 - (ii) information about the making of a community treatment order in respect of the patient;
 - (iii) details of any conditions specified in a community treatment order made in respect of the patient which the managers consider relate to the victim or the victim’s family;
 - (b) if a community treatment order is in force in respect of the patient and the conditions specified in the order are to be varied under section 17B(4) of the Mental Health Act 1983, so far as the managers consider it appropriate to do so, to provide that person or the provider with details of any variation which the managers consider relates to the victim or the victim’s family;
 - (c) if a community treatment order in respect of the patient is to cease to be in force, so far as the managers consider it appropriate to do so, to inform that person or the provider of the date on which it is to cease to be in force;
 - (d) if, following the examination of the offender under section 20 of the Mental Health Act 1983, the authority for the patient’s detention is not to be renewed, so far as the managers consider it appropriate to do so, to inform that person or the provider of the date on which the authority is to expire;
 - (e) so far as the managers consider it appropriate to do so, to provide that person or the provider with—
 - (i) information about the grant to the patient of leave to be absent from hospital under section 17 of the Mental Health Act 1983, or the consideration of the offender for such leave;
 - (ii) information about the imposition of conditions in connection with the grant to the patient of such leave;
 - (iii) details of any such conditions which the managers consider relate to the victim or the victim’s family;
 - (f) to provide that person or the provider with such other information as the managers of the relevant hospital consider appropriate in all the circumstances of the case.
- (5) If the provider of probation services is provided with information under subsection (4), it must provide the information to the person who made the request.

- (6) The responsible clinician must provide the managers of the relevant hospital with any information which the responsible clinician has and which is requested by the managers for the purpose of carrying out their functions under subsection (4).
- (7) Subsection (8) applies if—
 - (a) an application is made to the First-tier Tribunal or the Mental Health Review Tribunal for Wales under section 66 or 69 of the Mental Health Act 1983,
 - (b) the patient’s case is referred to the First-tier Tribunal or the Mental Health Review Tribunal for Wales under section 67 of that Act, or
 - (c) the managers of the relevant hospital refer the patient’s case to the First-tier Tribunal or the Mental Health Review Tribunal for Wales under section 68 of that Act.
- (8) The tribunal must inform the managers of the relevant hospital if it directs that the patient be discharged.
- (9) In this section “the relevant hospital” means—
 - (a) the hospital in which the patient is detained, or
 - (b) if a community treatment order is in force in respect of the patient, the responsible hospital.

44L Removal of restriction

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) the provider of probation services is required to provide information to a person in accordance with section 44J, and
 - (b) the restriction direction mentioned in section 44J(1)(b) has ceased to have effect (whether before or after the request for the information was made) while the transfer direction continues in force.
- (2) The provider of probation services must take all reasonable steps to notify the managers of the relevant hospital of an address at which the person who made the request for the information may be contacted.
- (3) The provider of probation services may notify that person of the name and address of the hospital.
- (4) While the transfer direction continues in force—
 - (a) the patient in respect of whom the transfer direction was made with the restriction direction is to be regarded as a patient in respect of whom a transfer direction was made without a restriction direction; and section 44K applies in relation to the offender accordingly, and

- (b) the request for information under section 44J is to be treated as a request for information to be provided in accordance with section 44K.

- (5) In this section “the relevant hospital” has the meaning given by section 44K(9).”

- (2) The provider of probation services may provide the person who made the request with any information that would be required or permitted to be provided to that person (by the provider or otherwise) under Chapter 2 of this Part if the request were made under the provision specified in the relevant entry in column 2 of the table.
- (3) Where—
- (a) a person would be required or permitted to provide information to the provider of probation services or to the managers of a hospital under Chapter 2 of this Part if the request mentioned in subsection (1)(b) were made under the provision specified in the relevant entry in column 2 of the table, and
 - (b) the provider of probation services or hospital managers request the information from that person,
- that person must take all reasonable steps to provide the information to the provider or hospital managers.
- (4) In this section—
- (a) “offence” includes an offence under the law of any place outside England and Wales;
 - (b) “similar criminal conduct”, in relation to an offence, means conduct that—
 - (i) the provider of probation services considers to be similar to the conduct constituting the offence, and
 - (ii) itself constitutes an offence;
 - (c) “victim” includes a person who is a victim within the meaning of section 1 of the Victims and Prisoners Act 2024 by virtue of subsection (2)(a) of that section.

44N Victim impact statements where hospital order made with restriction order

- (1) This section applies where—

- (a) one of these applies in respect of a person (“the patient”) charged with an offence—
 - (i) the patient is convicted of the offence;
 - (ii) a verdict is returned that the patient is not guilty of the offence by reason of insanity;
 - (iii) a finding is made under section 4 of the Criminal Procedure (Insanity) Act 1964 that the patient is under a disability, and under section 4A of that Act that the patient did the act or made the omission charged against the patient as the offence,
 - (b) a hospital order is made with a restriction order in respect of the patient by a court dealing with the patient for the offence,
 - (c) the provider of probation services provides information in accordance with section 44M about the patient to a person who appears to the provider to be the victim of the offence, or to act for the victim of the offence,
 - (d) either—
 - (i) an application is made to the First-tier Tribunal or the Mental Health Review Tribunal for Wales by the patient under section 69, 70 or 75 of the Mental Health Act 1983 (applications concerning restricted patients), or
 - (ii) the Secretary of State refers the patient’s case to the tribunal under section 71 or 75 of that Act (references concerning restricted patients), and
 - (e) the provider of probation services considers it appropriate to give the person who appears to the provider to be the victim of the offence the opportunity to provide a victim impact statement under this section.
- (2) The provider of probation services—
- (a) must take all reasonable steps to ascertain whether the person who appears to the provider to be the victim of the offence wishes to provide a victim impact statement to the provider, and
 - (b) if the person provides such a statement, must forward it to the tribunal.
- (3) Where a victim impact statement has been forwarded to the tribunal under subsection (2), the tribunal must—
- (a) allow the person who made the statement to request permission to read the statement to the tribunal at a relevant hearing, and
 - (b) grant such permission unless the tribunal considers that there are good reasons not to.

- (4) The tribunal may have regard to the statement when determining any of the following matters (but must not have regard to it for any other purpose) –
- (a) whether the patient should be subject to any conditions in the event of the patient’s discharge from hospital while a restriction order is in force in respect of the patient;
 - (b) if so, what conditions;
 - (c) what conditions the patient should be subject to in the event of the patient’s discharge from hospital under a community treatment order.
- (5) In this section –
- “relevant hearing” means any hearing held by the tribunal before making a decision which disposes of proceedings on the application or reference mentioned in subsection (1)(d);
- “victim” includes a person who is a victim within the meaning of section 1 of the Victims and Prisoners Act 2024 by virtue of subsection (2)(a) of that section;
- “victim impact statement” means a statement about the way in which, and the degree to which, the offence has affected and (as the case may be) continues to affect the victim or any other person.

44O Saving for other powers of provider of probation services

Nothing in this Part limits any power that the provider of probation services has otherwise than under this Part.”
